

SALISBURY NH CEMETERIES

SHAW HILL (Severens Family Graveyard) S02-010

LOCATION: Remote location off Old College Road/Keyser Road near Andover border, very poor access. This graveyard designation for Shaw Hill by Paul S. Shaw seems to be confused with the Oak Hill Cemetery at another location off of Shaw Hill. S02-010 is actually The Severens Graveyard at the base of Shaw Hill on what was likely the lower fields of Eliphalet Shaw/Keyser/Barnes farmland. Possible poison ivy in area.

Graves from left to right as in graveyard: Pascal R. son of James Severens and Sarah died Dec 31, 1830 ae19, Royal son of Dea. James and Sarah Severens died Jan 28, 1811, Anna daughter of Joseph and Anna Severens died May 17, 1790 ae11, Anna wife of Lieut. Joseph Severens died Oct 28, 1813, Lieut Joseph Severens died March 16, 1813 ae 67

Note: Severens, Severence, Severance are alternate spellings.

Note: Deacon James Severens is indicated as buried in Smiths Corners which was a cemetery that was moved to the Maplewood area, however Salisbury Cemetery records seem to indicate he is buried at Mills Cemetery in West Salisbury (more research needed). In any case Royal and Pascal his 2 sons are buried at Shaw Hill/Severens
