Brennon Lorden (zoom), Jim Hoyt, Jen Hoyt, John Herbert, Mac Johnson, Brett Walker, Lisa Walker, Judy Preston, Louise Andrus, Derek Allard, Dave Merwin, Tammy Hilton

Jen opened the meeting at 7:20

Since Jim spoke with Brennon before we approve the minutes and we have Brennon on zoom we wanted to mention the corn hole tournament.

Brennon is going to take care of the corn hole tournament. Jim motioned to have Brennon added to the committee. It was seconded and all agreed. Signs crossroads, around town and facebook to figure out how many boards to have and have sign ups on old home day as well. Brennon is going to make the entry form and email it to Jen so she can put it up. 50/50 kind of cash prize. 50 town (fire explorers, historical society) Can split between fire explorers and historical society. Brennon is going to start putting feelers out to people he knows that are into the game. Jen questioned how much for fee. Brennon said $10 a team. He has access to 6 game sets.

Corn hole and chili cookoff at the same time. Neither of these things will interfere with horseshoes or the church BBQ.

John asked that before we get to much further into the meeting that we approve the minutes from last meeting. Dave asked to have the wording be clarified from the May 11th minutes regarding liability to the historical society not the land owner of the neighboring property. Jen said she would take care of this and change the May 11th minutes to reflect the clarification. Approved upon minutes being amended.

Judy questioned the day for Muster. The firemen's muster will be on Sunday, August 8th and the kids muster will be on Saturday, August 7th. There was a question of what time the muster for the kids would be, but that was not decided at this meeting.

Jen reached out to petting zoo. They have ponies, no charge unlimited rides. Chicken, goats, baby animals. $950 Called just to get a price. They are still pricey. In 2017 they were $750. Reptile people not as much. Artic Fox at the library. Does Judy remember the Artic Fox. She can reach out to the woman who does it.

New announcements from parade and vendor coordinators. Tammy went first. She started by looking at the list of people to invite Captain Morrill company can't find anything. Derek informed the group that he actually passed away two years ago. The Kearsarge community band. Jen contacted they said they would be happy to do whatever we want. Requested a ramp truck. They played on the green last time. The temple mini choppers they sold their choppers. Civil air patrol color guard. Still in contact with them email. Blackbear winery they are thinking about it. The mvhs marching band have said they will participate. (Tammy) has done parade organization in the past. She has a parade registration form. She passed around some of the forms. WWII she has some feelers out for civil war troops.

Brennon is going to let the Salisbury woods use his trailer in order for them to be in the parade.

Tammy also discussed the poultry contest. Pulled up some criteria. Hopkinton state fair – they would dress up their chickens and sometimes they would dress with their chickens. Jen asked if there would be any prizes. Tammy was thinking she would talk to some people to get some donations to like tractor supply or something. Jen mentioned that the barn store would probably donate.

Louise spoke about the vendors – 35 notices to previous vendors. 8 signed up so far. Start to call them and get an answer Jack Campbell in the past. She knows that we can get other people from other towns but wants to see who will come from town first. Whoopie pie lady was thinking of coming. How much is a table. (Tammy) Louise said they are free.

Food vendors for OHD Loudon. Forking, good vibes ice truck shaved ice. Silly pups does cotton candy. Derek said they would take stuff off the menu if they needed. Not really doing dinner items.

$950 petting barn

Jen made a motion who wanted to do the petty farm. No one wants the petting farm. No one liked the price.

Is there a way to find out if there is anything else going on around the same time as our OHD. As we are having a hard time getting answers back from people. Andover is doing a cook out the same day as well. Judy the cesintentilla had tommy the train $380 in 2019. Jen will find contact info. Jen priced out the games. 4.5 jenga on amazon, 6 ft jenga is $, Lisa suggested that we get yard games for the kids. Brett stated we will need flat surface. Use the planters for level service (place a piece of plywood over them) $89.99 2 jenga sets 4.5 foot. Judy had said they did a greased poll. Get one connect four and 2 jenga. The other game she came across on amazon. Frisbee game. Limitation space.

Louise stated that Nancy Hayden took care of tommy the train. 2019 $380 for tommy the train.

Get face painted 8.95 a couple of those. Glitter tattoos. Jen kids are going to do these. Mermaids, pirates, skull and bones. Templet, adhesive and glitter. Pam the clown twisty balloon and bubbles. $225 for 3 or 2.5 hours. Was Derek's idea. This is someone he knows. Judy suggested ribbons. Jen likes buttons or pins better. People could collect them. 300 for $113 Brett did a sample for the buttons. Others in other years. People seem to like the design. 2 and quarter inch. Brett we should look at turnaround time. John asked if we're doing it online. Brett is going to look into making the buttons.

Clown, rock wall (jen call about), face painting, glitter tattoos, fire muster, jenga, connect four, corn hole (a couple before the tournament). Won't hurt to let people play around on the corn hole games before the tournament.

$575 climbing wall

She will get numbers for next meeting. Crown trophy – fire dept., parade, car show, tractors, Exhibition farthest traveled, ribbon and gc. Show and bragging rights in andover. Exhibition other than. Mac can you do the car and tractor show. He said he could do with help. Jim said he can help. Mac is going to contact the car club first and then we'll go from there. Get their thoughts and if they will be interested.

Gcs for car, tractor show

Chili cookoff stole from Loudon. Crock Pot chili. The overall best Chili.

Jim 603 brewery is suppose to be getting back to us. Northwoods, Concord Capital, Kettlehead, Vulgar. The winery is thinking about it.

Melissa is going to sponsor us for a liquor license for the 2 days. Judy is concerned about people drinking. $50 or gc refinery for chili cookoff winner. The kitchen. Derek mentioned that they will be closing the Andover location over the summer.

Dave asked about citizen of the year. Boxes around town 2 weeks before the event. Also email voting. Boston Cane. Citizen of the year gets a clock $125. Brett 2019 saw that there was a name on the clock. Jim ballots the name of the citizen and the person voting name. Email is going to Jen. A month ahead and due July 10th. Voting the last couple weeks of June. One of the meetings sit and count votes.

Some question who is going to transport citizen of the year. Ask Erik Swendson.

Jen we talked about music the people she knows is dj voice of 94.1fm $75 an hour. $225 dj and $225 band. DJ corner hole. Band horse and parade. DJ can announce winners and remind people of what is going on during the day and on Sunday.

Tammy will update the chicken form.

Brett made mention that we have to come up with a budget. Because, $4000 will go pretty quick.
